A young girl at our church suffers from Cyclical Vomiting Syndrome.
There is research needed and her family would like to raise money for this. Cindy and Alan Brown from our church have offered to put on a quiz evening with light refreshments on Saturday 22nd February at 7.30pm. All are welcome to come, donations for the fund will also be very welcome. Anne Williams, Bromborough Methodist Church.

Superintendents Question Time. As a means of enabling conversation and participation in the life of the Methodist Family on Wirral, Rev Ann Rigby-Jones will be holding the first of an occasional series of these events on Thursday 20th February at 7:30pm at Thingwall, All are welcome to attend and to ask questions from the floor, but Ann asks that if you have a question of a technical/procedural nature that you give written notice 7 days in advance so that she is able to research and provide a proper answer. Alternatively it may be necessary to receive the question on the day and respond after the research has been done.

Prayer Concerns: Nancy Carruthers; Audrey Harford especially after the loss of her husband; Sister Gwen Appleton; Heather Higson, Please pray for increased membership and what we at Neston Methodist can be doing to encourage new members or attendance. We need young families, old families, teenagers, middle aged people and recently retired – we welcome them all to our church!

Circuit Appeal: Can you check your cupboards for any oddments of material you may have that would be suitable for making nativity costumes for our puppets. Those of you who were at the November Circuit Meeting will remember seeing the puppets all dressed up for Bethlehemian Rhapsody. We are looking to make a full set so it can be used across the circuit.
